We are pleased to share some exciting news. Please note on your calendar now a special reception featuring David M. Walker, the former Comptroller General of the United States and head of the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO), bestselling author, and frequent national media commentator.

Mr. Walker will appear at a special event organized by the Economic Council to discuss the Comeback America Initiative (CAI) and their vision of keeping the American dream alive for future generations while focusing on the core values of transformation, integrity and results. Given the current debate about the federal deficit reaching a record high and the need for budget reforms, this should prove to be a timely opportunity to hear directly from a Washington insider.

Mr. Walker is currently the Founder, President and CEO of the Comeback America Initiative (CAI). In this capacity he leads CAI's efforts to promote fiscal responsibility and sustainability by engaging the public and assisting key policymakers on a non-partisan basis to help achieve solutions to America's federal, state and local fiscal imbalances. He previously served as the first President and CEO of the Peter G. Peterson Foundation.

All activities are non-partisan in nature and designed to make government more future focused, results oriented, successful, efficient, equitable and sustainable. This includes steps designed to transform government to increase transparency and accountability in connection with key areas of ineffectiveness, inequity and fiscal irresponsibility.
